[...] employed to investigate the latter important subject. We have, nevertheless, in arranging our proposed distribution of the three arms of the service, kept in view the nature of the defence that would be required in the different districts. We have, moreover, in our calculation of numbers, been strongly influenced by conviction that in the event of war with the neighbouring Country, no defence could be effectual unless the lakes were held by a powerful force of gun boats.

We submit the Draft of a Bill in accordance with the foregoing Report, and submit the same for Your Excellency's consideration.
