

Vimy 2017

In April 2017, the War Museum will present a multi-faceted exhibition and programming schedule exploring the Battle of Vimy Ridge and its meaning, 100 years later.

Plan your Student visit today with the following programs:

Theatrical orientation

Free – Offered from April to June 2017

This free, 15-minute introduction to the Museum's themes and galleries will highlight the human experience of war. The focus will be exclusively on First World War stories, helping to set the tone for your group's visit as we commemorate the centenary of the Battle of Vimy Ridge.

New Guided Tour – The story of Vimy Ridge: Highlights Tour

Offered from April to December 2017

This fast-paced tour is a brilliant introduction to the Museum and will encourage visitors to engage with hands-on artifacts and displays, as well as stimulate conversations about the First World War in a meaningful way. We have so many fascinating stories to share, come join us for a look beyond the front lines!

Update to First World War Gallery

The First World War gallery is getting an update! New artifacts and new audio, video and interactive content will help visitors understand this iconic battle and its enduring legacy.

Special exhibition Vimy – Beyond the Battle

From April 6 to November 13, 2017

Through the exploration of private and collective acts of remembrance of the Battle of Vimy Ridge, the First World War and more recent conflicts, Vimy – Beyond the Battle sheds light on how and why Canadians commemorate.

BOOK TODAY!

T 819-776-7014 or 1-800-555-5621 | F 819-776-8279 | E information@warmuseum.ca | W warmuseum.ca
1 Vimy Place, Ottawa ON Canada

CANADA 150

Canada