

Prisoner of War Scrapbook

A prisoner of war is any person held captive by another country during war. During the First World War approximately 10 million people became prisoners of war.

All the documents and images in the Prisoner of War Scrapbook came from the Rennbahn camp near Münster, Germany.

Copies of archival documents