LOOKING FOR AN IMAGE?

The Canadian War Museum maintains a unique collection of over 500,000 items, including art, photographs, and military artifacts. Images of most of these can be purchased from the Museum.

WHAT DO WE HAVE?

The War Museum's collections include approximately:

- 12,500 artworks in all media by close to 400 international artists and well-known Canadian artists, including members of the Group of Seven and Alex Colville;
- 5,000 original recruitment, propaganda, war bond, and information posters;
- 200 pieces of First World War trench art;
- 65,000 images including original photographs, negatives, slides, digital images, and film;
- 425 metres of original documents such as letters, diaries, scrapbooks, postcards, maps, blueprints, sheet music, and sound and oral history recordings;
- 2,000 Canadian medal groups, including 29 of the 94 Victoria Crosses awarded to Canadians since the creation of the award in 1856;
- 36,000 dress and insignia items;
- 250 large artifacts, including tanks, other vehicles, aircraft, and artillery; and
- 5,000 firearms and other weapons.

SEARCH THE COLLECTIONS

Our online databases contain images and information on many of the artifacts in our collections. Not all search results will include a digitized image, but we are currently adding more.

Please visit our homepage at www.warmuseum.ca

- Select 'English', then 'Collections' to view war art, posters, and artifacts.
- Select 'Research Centre', then 'Online Catalogue' for information about photographs and archival material.

PUT US ON YOUR WALLS

Images of war art, posters, photographs, and artifacts can be custom-ordered as fine art reproductions from Image Reproduction Services at the coordinates below. All items with clear copyright may be reproduced on canvas or paper in a variety of sizes, or in digital format. A fee applies to this service. A selection of reproductions of war art is also available through the Museum's Boutique.

PUT US IN YOUR PUBLICATION

Images may also be used in publications and film productions. Prior permission must be obtained from Image Reproduction Services. Usage fees apply to this service. Discounts are available for educational and non-profit use. Terms and conditions are available upon request.
