PRIVACY AND PERSONAL DATA

- We limit access to personal information in your file to Canadian War Museum staff or persons authorized by the museum who require it to perform their duties.
- Personal data does not get shared with Sheridan College.
- A researcher from Sheridan College may be present at some volunteer meetings.
- Feedback and research notes will only be collected and retained by the Canadian War Museum in an anonymized format.
- The Youth Playtest Volunteer supports a project on Second World War History. Discussion of historical events will be at an age-appropriate level.
- Discussions may influence the development of a video game that may be publicly available on the Canadian War Museum's website.

WITHDRAWAL PROCESS

Taking part in this volunteer program is your choice. You can stop participating at any time with no consequence to you. For example, you would not lose any volunteer hours you have already accumulated.

To withdraw:

- you or your parent/guardian must inform the Advisor, Volunteer Programs in writing. Please email: benevole-volunteer@museedelhistoire.ca.
- All of your personal information will be deleted from the Canadian War Museum's database upon withdrawal.
- Any feedback you contributed during the program will still be used, but only in a way that does not include your name or identify you in any way as this is collected in an anatomized way.

Leaving the program will not affect your chances of volunteering with the Canadian War Museum in the future.

Please check this box to show that you understand the information above.
